

List of Figures // Animated Approach to Websites

Figure	Description
Figure 1.1	Deeper look at the brief for this project.
Figure 1.2	Deeper look at Sustainability Development Goal 4.
Figure 1.3	Milanote board for the development of this project.
Figure 2.1	Tactile to-do list to manage project tasks and time
Figure 2.2	Organised Gantt Chart for the 12 weeks of this project
Figure 3.1	Survey responses to 'how many hours browsing?' and 'what devices are used?'
Figure 3.2	Survey responses to 'do you lean towards static content or subtle animations?'
Figure 3.3	Survey responses to 'what should be the primary purpose of animations on websites?'
Figure 3.4	Survey responses to 'With or without animations?' and 'why without?'
Figure 3.5	Survey responses to 'how often should animation be used?'

Figure 4.1	Moodboard to identify the website's style
Figure 4.2	Early sketching process for the website designs
Figure 4.3	Wireframes for the online portfolio homepage
Figure 4.4	Wireframes for the online portfolio about page
Figure 4.5	Wireframes for the online portfolio contact page
Figure 4.6	Wireframes for the online portfolio projects page
Figure 4.7	Wireframes for the online portfolio development pages
Figure 5.1	Relume Figma Kit to develop elements and components
Figure 5.2	Closer look at developing project in Figma (part 1)
Figure 5.3	Closer look at developing project in Figma (part 2)
Figure 5.4	Figma viewing the prototype screen.
Figure 6.1	Storyboarding/ Sketching the animated banner

Figure 6.2	Adobe Illustrator animated banner illustrated design
Figure 6.3	Finished brand guidelines file
Figure 7.1	Survey responses to a choice between static elements or interactive elements
Figure 7.2	Survey responses to a choice between static illustrations and animated illustrations
Figure 7.3	Survey responses when asked if a video process was clearer than a static process
Figure 7.4	Survey responses when given a choice between a static header and an animated banner
Figure 7.5	Survey responses when asked for additional feedback or suggestions
Figure 8.1	Mockup of finished design
Figure 8.2	Mockup of finished design
Figure 8.3	Mockup of finished design